

TROOP 171 NEWSLETTER

FEBRUARY 2004

February and March activities

We will go bowling and have an indoor overnigher February 20–21. There will be a Court of Honor and Friends of Scouting presentation at the troop meeting on February 23.

There will be a family outing at Chatfield State Park March 19–21.

Bowling

The troop will go bowling and spend the night indoors February 20–21. More information on this outing will be available at the troop meetings.

Court of Honor

There will be a Court of Honor at the troop meeting on February 23. Parents and friends of Scouts are invited to attend.

There will be a presentation by the Friends of Scouting at the Court of Honor. The Friends of Scouting is a group that raises money for Scouting in the Denver Area Council. Please consider making a donation.

Family Camp

The annual family camp will be at Chatfield State Park March 19–21. Family and friends of Scouts are encouraged to attend this outing. This campout will feature fishing and a short hike for beginning backpackers.

2004 permission forms

New permission forms for 2004 have been mailed to all troop members. Each Scout must return a completed form before he may attend any troop outings or advance in rank.

Philmont

There is room for a few more participants to go to Philmont in 2005. Our arrival date is June 23 and our departure date is July 5. The total cost of the trek is $495 per participant.

If you wish to participate, contact David Fifield at (303)766-3525 or by email at david@bsatroop171.org. A payment of $272.50 will be due in October 2004 and another payment of $222.50 will be due in March 2005.

Registration information

Every Scout and adult leader registered with the Boy Scouts of America must re-register with their troop every year. An important letter regarding registration for 2004 has been mailed to everyone in the troop. Contact Marilu Hirschinger for more information or if you think you didn't get the letter.
